Lagoon landscapes, gondolas, and iconic views become the starting point for a creative evening that combines painting and conviviality. Here, inspiration comes directly from the city.

Guided by a painter, you can choose to start from a suggested image or reinterpret Venice in your own way. You'll work on the canvas step by step, adding details and building your composition, while an aperitivo accompanies the experience.

During the evening, the image transforms from a reference to a personal interpretation, allowing for a freer and more spontaneous perspective. You'll paint Venice as seen through your eyes!
