Free cancellation up to 48 hours before

Inside an art studio in Rome, this experience invites you to explore chiaroscuro and the expressive power of light, inspired by Caravaggio's technique. An immersive workshop where contrasts, shadows, and depth become creative tools to build an intense and personal image.

Guided by an artist, you will work on composition, light, and color, learning to create volume and atmosphere through progressive layering and shading techniques. Step by step, the painting will take shape, transforming chiaroscuro into an authentic and contemporary expressive language.

An artistic experience designed for those who wish to approach Italian painting through observation, technique, and personal interpretation, experiencing Rome from a more creative and immersive perspective.
