

Paint Venice in watercolor en plein air with a local artist

Venice · Veneto

- Duration: 1 h
- Up to 8 people per booking
- Art, Drawing
- Free cancellation up to 48 hours before

Guided by Nicola, a local artist, you will start with a pencil sketch to build the composition, then move on to watercolor, discovering techniques of transparency, color, and depth. During the session, you will develop your personal style following a relaxed and immersive approach.

An authentic way to experience Venice, transforming the observation of the city into a creative and personal gesture.

What makes this experience special • En plein air painting session in the Accademia area
• Direct guidance from a local artist specialized in watercolor
• Learning basic techniques including light, composition, and color
• Small groups for a more intimate and immersive experience (minimum 4 people, maximum 8)
• A slow and authentic way to experience Venice through observation

What you take home (besides your watercolor)

Not just a painting, but a new appreciation for light, details, and atmospheres, and the ability to observe Venice with a more conscious and personal gaze.
