

Paint and Sip at Parco Sempione: Painting Class with Wine in Milan

Milan · Lombardy

- Duration: 2 h
- Art, Painting
- Up to 8 people per booking
- Free cancellation up to 1 hours before

In the greenery of Sempione Park, as the sunset light rests on the trees and the Milanese horizon, you will be guided step by step through an open-air painting session, designed to help you discover color and forms. Around you, the slow rhythm of the park, the sound of conversations, and a shared atmosphere that invites you to let go.

Between brushstrokes, you can sip on a selection of Italian wines and enjoy small snacks, in a natural balance of creativity and conviviality. The experience unfolds smoothly, leaving room for inspiration and exchange.

The most significant moment comes when your canvas begins to reflect not only what you see, but how you experience it. And in the end, your painting takes shape as a personal memory of Milan.

What makes this experience special

- Guided open-air painting session in Sempione Park
- Relaxed atmosphere combining nature, art, and conviviality
- Selection of Italian wines and snacks during the experience
- Suitable for all levels, even for beginners
- Creation of a personal souvenir, made during the experience