Free cancellation up to 48 hours before

In a creative space dedicated to artistic experimentation, you will connect with one of Florence's most recognizable icons, reinterpreting it through your own perspective. Here you will be welcomed by Silvia Logi, a local artist, who will guide you in a workshop inspired by Brunelleschi's Dome.

An experience that starts with observation and transforms into interpretation, allowing space for your expressive freedom.

You will begin by discovering the creative and structural logic of the work, and then move on to practice. You will work with wood, pencils, and selected materials, building your version of the Dome step by step, following your rhythm and your choices.

A different way of relating to Florence, transforming a city symbol into something that truly belongs to you.

What makes this experience special

- Workshop guided by a local artist with a personalized approach
- Creative interpretation of Brunelleschi's Dome
- Use of mixed materials including wood, drawing, and compositional elements
- Expressive freedom within a structured guide
- Dynamic and stimulating atmosphere, suitable for all levels
