

Discover the art of the Venetian oar maker with an authentic workshop visit in Venice

Venice · Veneto · ★ 4.7 61 reviews

Duration: 1 h

Up to 8 people per booking

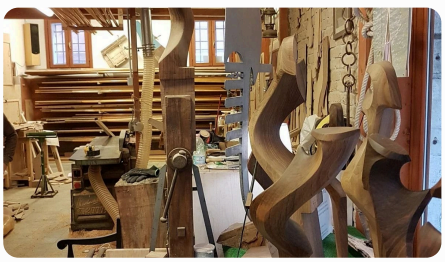

Crafts

Free cancellation up to 48 hours before

Amidst the scent of wood, ancient tools, and live demonstrations, you will witness the various stages of the artisanal process, observing gestures passed down through generations. During the visit, you can get in touch with the history, techniques, and precision required to create unique objects that are part of Venice's most authentic identity, with the possibility of participating in a small practical trial.

An immersive experience to discover Venice through wood, gestures, and one of the most poetic and fascinating crafts of the lagoon tradition.

What makes this experience special

- Authentic visit to the historic workshop of a Venetian oar maker
- Discovery of the artisanal process of making forcole and oars
- Live demonstration of traditional techniques
- Encounter with one of the most iconic crafts of the lagoon
- Possible practical experience during the visit
- Authentic atmosphere amidst wood, historical tools, and Venetian stories
- Experience for groups of 4 to 15 people

What you take home (along with the most authentic gestures of the lagoon)

A deeper insight into Venetian culture and the artisanal precision that still keeps alive one of the city's rarest and most identity-defining traditions.