If you dream of immersing yourself in a world of precious textures, family stories and artisanal passion, this is the workshop for you!

🌟 What you will do:

• You will explore a collection of rare and precious fabrics, listening to the fascinating stories that accompany them

• You will learn to recognize and distinguish materials such as soft moer, elegant college shirts and loden coats

• You will get your hands dirty with practical tests guided by two women who have passed down a heritage for generations

• You will share a hot tea and authentic conversations, letting yourself be enveloped by the intimate and familiar atmosphere

🌈 What you take home:

• A finished object, perhaps a small creation or a special memory

• Practical techniques and skills to recognize and appreciate authentic Italian fabrics

• The feeling of having lived a sensory, exciting and engaging experience, made of passion and tradition
